

Christmas comes early for some children

By Frank Oliver/Journal and Courier

David Poore, 4, loads his shopping cart with $100 worth of toys on Wednesday at Toys R Us in Lafayette. With David is his grandmother, Sharon Gard (from left), Lafayette Mayor Tony Roswarski and David's mother, Tammie. Through a joint effort of the local chapters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Moose Lodge, 13 children were given the opportunity to buy presents. Toys R Us also offered a discount for the shoppers.
